

Sign-up for the Killington Ski Camp

Have you felt that cold air? I'm sure you've scraped the frost off your windshield once or twice. The ski sale is behind us. Killington is planning to open in 2 days. Other areas are shooting for this weekend. Then why is it that we think we need to wait until January, February or March to go on a week long ski trip?

Killington ski camp is held the first week in December. A week at a big resort that you can tailor to your own needs.

- * Ski for 5 days (plus a half day when you arrive on Sunday)
- * Ski instruction each day (Racing or Non-Racing, Novice to Expert)
- * Great accommodations at the Northstar Inn (w/ heated outdoor pool!)
- * Planned and unplanned evening activities and dining
- * Giant Slalom race on Thursday (for the race campers only)
- * Banquet on Thursday night with great door prizes

At the end of the week:

- * You'll leave as a better skier
- * You'll be in shape at the start of the season
- * You'll know your way around Killington
- * You'll have a cool "Killington Race Week" shirt (Race campers only)
- * You'll have a bunch of new friends and skiing connections
- * You'll know what you need to work on and can coach yourself the rest of the season

Cost: (If it is postmarked by Wednesday, Nov 22)

Lodging for 5 nights = $190 (based on double occupancy. Single rooms available at an extra cost.)

Camp for non-racers and beginners = $285 (5 days of instruction and lift tickets)

Camp for those aspiring to be GS racers or improve their skills = $370

How to sign-up or request additional information:

Contact Wes Carrajat (Trip coordinator)

Wes has coordinated a bulk purchase of the instruction, lift tickets and lodging for years. This saves you a lot of money compared to purchasing directly from the resort and hotel. Plus, Wes and his wife Mary are super hosts!

Just to put a face to a name, here are a couple of links to photos of Wes during last year's camp.
